Texans – Start the School Year Right with Texas.gov

Get organized, skip the lines, and take care of your responsibilities online

AUSTIN, Texas – August 21, 2013 – Whether you have a child starting school for the first time or one heading off to college, Texas.gov offers information and services that can help you prepare for the school year:

- Order birth certificates (watch demo) for school registration requirements
- Pay CHIP enrollment fees (Children's Health Insurance Plan)
- Visit Texas.gov/education to find useful state-related education information

With summer winding down and back-to-school preparations underway, it's also a good time to get your own driving tasks in order. With Texas.gov/Driver, it's easy and quick. Every day, Texas.gov enables more than 7,000 vehicle registration renewals, 3,500 driver license renewals, and 2,000 driver record orders. And, nearly 6,000 people log in daily to check the status of their driving privileges and pay reinstatement fees on Texas.gov/DLEligibility. Texas.gov/Driver can help you check the following tasks off your to-do list:

- Renew your driver license or ID (watch demo) – Renew online up to a year after your expiration date.
- Change the address on your license or ID (watch demo) If you've moved, you are required to change your address within 30 days.
- Renew your vehicle registration (watch demo) – Renew online up to six months after your expiration date.
- Print a driver record (watch demo) – Order and print your certified driver record in minutes.
- Check your driving eligibility – If your driving privileges are revoked, pay your fees and monitor your driving status online.

No matter what your comfort level with the Internet is or what device you choose to use, Texas.gov/Driver makes it easy to take care of your driving business. It's secure and works great on your computer, your tablet, and even your phone. And remember, there are more than 1,000 other online government services on Texas.gov. So, take it online Texas!
